- All artwork accepted must be available for sale. The Wood Gallery will receive a 40% commission on all sales.
- All reasonable care and precaution will be taken in the handling, storing and installation of works submitted for this exhibit. The Gallery cannot be held liable for any damage to artwork. Participation in the entry process constitutes an understanding and acceptance of the conditions.

Jurors:

August Burns - is a painter specializing in figurative art and portraiture. August painted Governor Peter Schumlin's official portrait which is on permanent exhibit at the Vermont State House. The focus of her work and of her life is people, and her art is to answer the questions "What makes each of us unique?", "What is it about a face that tells a person's story?"

Ellis Jacobson - Ellis Jacobson is well known for his widely exhibited sculpted masks and his original comedy theater and has presented arts enrichment workshops throughout Vermont. He is the After School Arts Director at the T.W. Wood Gallery.

David Schutz – Is the Vermont State Curator. His office oversees the ongoing care, conservation and interpretation of the historic Vermont State House and its collections of fine art, decorative art and historic furnishings. He oversees management of the State House as a museum, along with rotating art galleries at the Vermont Supreme Court and the Governor’s Office in the Pavilion.
