The T.W. Wood Gallery is well known for its popular Summer Art Camp, held at the Vermont College of Fine Arts. The Gallery's new After School Arts (ASA) program offers children fun art enrichment activities throughout the year! Held at the T.W. Wood Gallery at 46 Barre Street in Montpelier, VT. ASA is led by Arts Educator Ellis Jacobson.

Ellis Jacobson is Program Director and Instructor for After School Arts. Ellis has been instructor, coordinator and director for a variety of after school programs in Central Vermont. Children love his art and play activities. He has presented arts enrichment workshops throughout the state. Ellis is known for his widely exhibited sculpted masks and original comedy theater productions. He has also staged puppet opera with award winning soloists from the Metropolitan Opera and was Founder and Curator of Burlington's Artpath Gallery.

One of Vermont's oldest and finest art Galleries & Museums

Founded in 1895, the T.W. Wood Gallery at 46 Barre Street in Montpelier, Vermont houses a large historical permanent collection of artwork. In addition to the works of T.W.
